

Har Har Mahadev

DO DHAM YATRA TO KEDARNATH AND BADRINATH FROM DELHI.
6 NIGHTS/ 7 DAYS DEPARTURE FROM DELHI

Why Do Dham Yatra?

The Do Dham Yatra to Kedarnath Temple and Badrinath Temple is a sacred journey dedicated to Lord Shiva and Lord Vishnu. Nestled in the Himalayas, Kedarnath offers a divine experience after a scenic trek from Gaurikund, while Badrinath Dham blesses devotees with peace and spiritual fulfillment.

The journey also showcases the holy beauty of rivers like the Ganga in Haridwar, Alaknanda at Rudraprayag, and Saraswati near Mana, along with a sacred dip in Tapt Kund—making it a truly soul-enriching pilgrimage.

Popular Places to Visit

Tips to Travel

- Here are some traveling tips for Char Dham Yatra listed below which one should keep in mind before travelling.
- While visiting Hindu mythological sites, shrines and temples, one should remove shoes and cover head with a piece of cloth before entering the Holy Place, so remember to carry one while packing your bags.
- Women should try and avoid wearing sarees during Trekking, and instead wear salwar, pants or trousers.
- Ponies, and palkis, are available for yattris, so if you are feeling weak or tired, you should take their help to complete the yatra.
- Do not take pictures if cameras are not allowed in temples
- Communication: Although all private mobile phones have coverage, Airtel & Jio network is better in most of the places.
- During boarding and travel all passengers shall use face cover/mask. They will also follow hand hygiene, respiratory hygiene and environmental hygiene.
- The approximate charge for one way Doli to Yamunotri shall be Rs.6500 per person & Kedarnath is R.12,000 per person. However it can subject to change due to demand in the area.
- This is a Pilgrimage sector so don't keep high expectations in Hotels except Haridwar.
- Kedarnath Yatra is not advisable for Asthama & Heart Patients – Consult your Doctor before joining
- Fitness: All pilgrims should be physically fit. It is better to do some jogging and other light exercise as you prepare for this journey.
